INTRODUCTION

The International Day of Peace was established in 1981 by resolution 36/67 of the United Nations General Assembly to coincide with its opening session, which was held annually on the third Tuesday of September. The first Peace Day was observed in September 1982. In 2001, the General Assembly by unanimous vote adopted resolution 55/282, which established 21 September as an annual day of non-violence and cease-fire. The UN invites all nations and people to honour a cessation of hostilities during the Day, and to otherwise commemorate the Day through education and public awareness on issues related to peace. Since its inception, Peace Day has marked personal and planetary progress toward peace. It has grown to include millions of people worldwide and many events are organized each year to commemorate and celebrate this day.

The “Strike a Pose & Freeze” exercise, jointly organised by International Office, Universiti Malaysia Pahang and the Policy & International Division, Ministry of Higher Education Malaysia saw nearly nine hundred UMP students creatively expressing a statement for world peace.

Freeze took place on the 18th September 2011, in the heart of Kuantan, the capital of the State of Pahang, Malaysia in conjunction with World Peace Day 21 September 2011. For SEVEN MINUTES, participants struck a pose and froze in the name of peace, love and global citizenship. This statement for world peace was observed by the community and passers-by.

This year’s observance focused on youth and development under the slogan: “Peace = Future.” The organisers of “Freeze” wished for the creation of awareness to go beyond a mere campaign, thus the engagement of youth in the Freeze Exercise. The photos that illustrate this “Freeze” coffee table book clearly show creative expressions for peace, love and global citizenship. Participating youth showed freedom of expression, and, frozen in silence to the music of Michael Jackson, made a statement for world peace.

International Office would like to thank the Policy & International Division, Ministry of Higher Education Malaysia, The Kuantan District Police Headquarters, Kuantan Municipal Council, all participants and all who have supported International Office in making this event a success.
